CORAM: KSHITIJ R. VYAS, C.J. &
DR. D.Y. CHANDRACHUD, J.

DATE: APRIL 17, 2006.

P.C.

When called out, neither the learned counsel for the petitioner nor the petitioner is present. The learned single Judge of this Court on 22nd January, 2001 recorded the statement of the learned counsel appearing for the petitioner viz. that the petitioner has not pressed prayer clause 26 (ii) whereby the petitioner challenged the order passed by the School Tribunal. In view of the same, the only relief which the petitioner is claiming is the higher scale of pay to suit her present post of full time teacher in Junior College. This petition being of the year 2000, no progress has been made since the first order dated 22nd June, 2001 passed by this Court. Hence, this petition can be disposed of by directing the petitioner to make an appropriate representation to the concerned respondents. As and when such representation is made, the same may be considered in accordance with law and communicate its decision to the petitioner. With this direction, we dispose of the petition.
